TWELVE PAGES—FIVE CENTS

Europe Asks Another 5 Billion In U.S. Aid

Says It Needed To Block Reds

Paris, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Western Europe wants another $4,700,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 in American Marshall plan aid over the next two years to hold the line against Communism.

The funds were asked by European member areas surveyed at the half-way mark of the recovery program inspired 32 months ago by former Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

Congress will decide how much it gets.

The $25-page report will be scanned by Congress before hearings on the appropriations for 1950-51, due to start Feb. 21.

Not including arms and ships, the report's figures on needs for that fiscal year are roughly $3,000,000,000—not including military aid. President Truman has asked for $3,100,000,000, but Europeans fear this will be cut by an economy-minded Congress.

Senator Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, said in Washington today he believed the Economic Cooperation Administration was willing to cut spending for the year below the $3,100,000,000 figure. He made the statement after ECA Chief Paul Hoffman discussed Europe's economic situation with the senators.

For 1949-50, the total of Marshall aid was $3,778,000,000, plus about $400,000,000 in special assistance for western Germany. Connally has proposed a slash of at least $1,000,000,000 from that figure.

The $8,257,000,000 already poured in, the report said, has removed the immediate threat of "bankruptcy and dissolution, with the political threats which would follow."

In hands of OEEC

Distribution of Marshall plan funds is in the hands of the organization for European Economic Cooperation.

The experts agreed that:

"On this reckoning—the reckoning of life or death for western Europe—the first two years of the European recovery program have been unreservedly successful."

"The production effort is succeeding beyond expectations," with 1949 figures on everything from automobiles to zinc oxides up 25 per cent from 1947.

"Considerable progress has been made in internal financial stability."

"The habit of working together has been formed in all the OEEC countries."

Still to be solved, however, is the problem of how Europe can get the dollars to buy the American goods it needs after Marshall aid ends in 1952.

The experts who drafted the report calculated that the OEEC countries could "continue their recovery" if they get 75 per cent of the 1949-50 and 1950-51 and 50 per cent for 1951-52. This declining figure and the complete halt for mid-1952 were part of the original plan.

CAA Announces 7.8 Million In Aid Given To Airports

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration announced today distribution of $7,800,000 in federal 25 states.

The money was obtained by re-allocating $10,734,278 in unused funds distributed under appropriations in 1947, 1948 and 1949.

All of the appropriations have been made under a seven-year $500,000,000 federal airport aid program. Project sponsors also must put up some money.

CAA officials said the fund allocations under the redistribution plan went only to projects which are able to use the money immediately.

Illinois projects and tentative allocations include:

Williamson county, Marion-Herrin, $35,000; Coles county, Charleston-Mattoon, $300,000; greater Rockford, $75,000; O'Hare Field, Chicago, $500,000.

MOTHER LOSES FEAR AS ROBBER THREATENS CHILD, ROBBER FLEES

Newark, N.J., Feb. 7.—(AP)—It didn't matter when the man asked for her money.

But then the holdup man told Mrs. George Sediment to hurry it up or "I'll let your kid have it," things started popping today.

Mrs. Sediment, who was tending her husband's small laundry store, pulled her five-year-old son to her side, picked up a heavy paper stapler and roared:

"I'll let you have it in the head!" The man ducked and fled.

Phone Strike Put Off Until Feb. 24 By Union

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The threat of a nationwide telephone strike was put off today until Feb. 24 to make way for federal mediation efforts.

The CIO-Communication Workers of America had set the walkout for 6 a.m. local time tomorrow but U.S. Conciliation Chief Cyrus S. Ching obtained a 16-day postponement on a plea of public interest.

Ching at the same time called on the CWA and the Bell Telephone System to "intensify bargaining."

He got a measure of agreement on that too, but each side kept on taking verbal jabs at the other. A compromise spokesman said strike threats had had a "harmful effect" on negotiations and the union implied that the company had not been doing any "real" bargaining heretofore.

The postponement was announced at 9 a.m. (CST) just as a mediation session got under way in New York between Western Electric Company, manufacturing and installation subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the installation division of the CWA.

A negotiating meeting of the A. T. and T. long lines department and division 10 of the CWA, also scheduled for that time, was put off until noon.

Actually the initial walkout would have involved only about 100,000 telephone workers whose contracts have expired. The union, however, had depended on their picket lines to stop most of another 200,000 from going to work. And the bigger group would become eligible to strike the first of March when their own agreements end.

Immediately under the strike threat were Western Electric and the Pacific, Southwestern and Mountain States Bell Telephone companies. A first vote will be completed about Feb. 15 among workers in New Jersey.

Thirty-one ministers said that they thought Mr. Truman had no other alternative. Twenty said it was a misguided step. Only three rated it a wise move, while five said it was sinful.

The ministers, headed by Bishop J. Ralph Magee of Chicago, are here for a three-day seminar on the country's problems. The topic under discussion: "an audit of mid-century America."

Professors of American University are helping to put on the seminar, and also drafted the questionnaire.

Although Mr. Truman got backing on his H-bomb decision, he didn't win any ministerial popularity vote. The preachers were asked:

"Of all living Americans, who do you think is best suited to serve as president of the United States?"

Only one of the ministers voted for Mr. Truman. He got three votes less than Herbert Hoover.

Treasury Bids For Taxes On Profits Of Labor Unions

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The treasury bid today for taxes on profits which labor unions and charitable and educational groups get from sideline businesses.

It told the House ways and means committee, whittling away at plans for tax loopholes as requested by President Truman, that regular corporation levies should apply to income from business "not incident or related to the exempt purpose" of the organization.

Mr. Truman in his tax message to Congress two weeks ago mentioned loopholes which he said have developed through abuse of the exemption allowed educational and charitable institutions. He did not, however, mention labor unions as the treasury did today.

The treasury estimates that plugging loopholes such as Mr. Truman mentioned could bring in $500,000,000 to offset part of $655,000,000 in excise tax cuts which Mr. Truman proposed.

The treasury said Congress had exempted certain organizations from the 38 per cent levy on corporate profits because it wanted to encourage their activities "which generally were not conducted for profit."

Confucius did not found Confucianism, but transmitted the teachings of antiquity and edited some of the Chinese classics, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Strauss Quits AEC With Hint Of H-Bomb Squabble

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Lewis L. Strauss resigned today from the Atomic Energy Commission with a broad hint that there had been conflict among AEC members over development of the hydrogen super-bomb.

In a letter to President Truman, Strauss said pointedly he had decided to leave now that the "issues" have been decided "as I had hoped and recommended."

Just a week ago, Mr. Truman gave the momentous order to add the H-bomb to the nation's arsenal, and Congress generally applauded the decision to get the jump on Russia in development of the new atomic weapon.

There have been numerous reports of the AEC split on the super-bomb question, with Chairman David L. Lilienthal reportedly heading one faction urging caution while Strauss headed the other side.

A Congress member who declined to be quoted by name said Strauss "sometimes almost single-handedly led the AEC in the super-bomb question, but he was during a critical and formative period and your counsel have been invaluable. You have made a contribution of utmost value in the development of the atomic energy program x x x."

Handed" to speed the H-bomb into reality.

Strauss is the fourth member to resign from the original five-man panel named by Mr. Truman in October, 1946, when the army's wartime control of atomic energy was shifted to civilian direction.

Chairman Lilienthal resigned some weeks ago, but has agreed to stay on until Feb. 15. Two others resigned earlier. Now, with Strauss about to leave, Sumner T. Pike will be the last of the original five.

In accepting Strauss' resignation, effective April 15, Mr. Truman wrote:

"I can understand why, after nine years in the public service, you feel the necessity to retire to private pursuits."

Carol Ann Paight Acquitted In 'Mercy Killing' Of Father

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Carol Ann Paight was acquitted tonight in the mercy slaying of her father.

The verdict came less than five hours after the second degree murder case went to an all-parent jury of nine women and three men.

Carol, 21, shot her cancer-riddled policeman father while he lay in his hospital bed.

The verdict was returned at 7:07 p.m. (CST).

The tall blonde college girl collapsed sobbing and was half carried from the courtroom.

She had faced life imprisonment if convicted of second degree murder, the charge brought by the state.

Her mother, Mrs. Mary Paight, widowed in the Sept. 23 Marcy shooting of Sgt. Carl Paight, also broke down in convulsive sobbing.

She recovered, however, and told newsmen, smiling through her tears: "Oh, I'm so happy I could die."

The jury was out four hours and 51 minutes.

Defense Attorney David Goldstein at once moved for the immediate discharge of the blonde defendant.

Superior Judge John A. Cornell approved. The state said it had no objection.

Judge Cornell had sternly warned the jam-packed courtroom against any demonstration and demanded absolute silence.

However, his warning failed to suppress the throng that had kept vigil for the verdict.

A wave of applause drowned out the sound of the gavel.

Pinckneyville, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The city council enacted an ordinance last night providing that no person may hold two liquor licenses and none shall be issued to anyone whose spouse already holds one in this Perry county seat.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Charles Oscar Robeson, 71, president of the Farmers Grain, Fuel and Supply company, died yesterday. He was a former member of the McDonough county board.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Vernon L. Nickell said President Truman's "fair deal" is drifting toward socialism.

Nickell, seeking republican renomination as state superintendent of public instruction, said last night that the socialist trend is "no wild dream" but already is incorporated in bills before Congress. He addressed a political rally.

Keithsburg, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Firemen searched the ruins of a two-room house early today, believing that Mrs. Orville Landrith had perished in a fire which destroyed the residence.

Mrs. Landrith, it developed, was not at home at the time. Her husband was called home from his job at Canton, Mo.

DuQuoin, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Eleven new men went on duty today in the 13th state police district's 17 southernmost Illinois counties. The post here reported the new patrolmen brought the district's force to 50, or four more than the normal complement.

The new appointees make 22 for the 13th district since the start of the current democratic administration.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Ben T. Phillips, chairman of the local chapter of the Civil Rights Congress, said last night there is a widespread plot of violence against negroes in Madison and St. Clair counties.

He said the cross burnings at Alton, Ill., Saturday night were proof of this.

Reports Hoover Said 540,000 Reds Now In America

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover was reported to have told senators today there are about 540,000 communists and fellow-travelers now in the United States.

Of this number, about one-tenth were described as card-carrying members of the Communist party.

Commenting on Hoover's reported disclosure, Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) told a reporter:

"I am flabbergasted. It is the most alarming thing I have heard in a long time. Just think what a powerful 'fifth column' that would make if we ever got into a war."

Meanwhile, senators indicated strong approval of Hoover's reported request for 300 new FBI agents to help tighten security lines around the nation's atomic secrets.

For the third time in five days, Hoover talked with senators behind closed doors about developments in the London atomic espionage case involving Dr. Klaus Fuchs, 38, a top British scientist, who is accused of passing American hydrogen bomb data to Moscow.

REPORTER GETS STY RY
AND THEN HELPS COPS

Hammond, Ind., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Ed Seney, Hammond Times reporter, dashed from his office this afternoon to investigate a police report that a tobacco truck had been hijacked.

He interviewed Henry Hanco, 20, of East Chicago, the driver who had been thrown off the truck, and then began cruising through alleys looking for the truck.

Seney found it, minus its $35 load of cigarettes, and reported to police where it could be recovered.

Fact-Finders Meet Lewis And Operators

Unemployment Rises In Fuel-Starved Firms

Pittsburgh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Unemployment spurted today in the coal strike. Fuel-starved firms laid off workers in railroading and steelmaking.

Thousands of additional layoffs are predicted shortly if the more than 370,000 striking soft coal diggers continue their nationwide "no contract no work" revolt.

Six railroads and a steel company announced furloughs for about 3,175 more employees. All told, 22,775 workers in coal using industries have been forced into idleness in the long coal dispute.

More coal miners joined the strike in Colorado, Washington, New Mexico, Illinois, Wyoming and Arkansas. Now they're shouting defiance to President Truman's use of Taft-Hartley.

Hardly to get them back on the job. Among Illinois strikers are 475 members of the independent Progressive Mine Workers, rival union to the striking United Mine Workers. Their leader said the men are angry over bringing of the Taft-Hartley action.

Idle miners generally spent their time just loafing.

Business is off terribly in coal mining districts, especially at taverns where the diggers usually gather for their beer drinking. There's no money for beer now.

Some miners are able to find odd jobs here and there to help out with the grocery bill now that credit is cut off for most of them. Others are helping around the house—even to putting out the wash.

They're grumbling about lack of food and money.

A group of Cannonsburg, Pa., strikers headed by 55-year-old Roman Rybarski proposed today that their boss John L. Lewis and his aides put one paycheck in the pot to relieve distress. Said Rybarski:

"They could take their pay and spend it on food and distribute it. They wouldn't go hungry."

A virtual halt to all UMW mining in such major producing states as Pennsylvania and West Virginia sent local production plummeting toward rock bottom. The supply is down to some 15 days.

About 16,000 Progressive Miners, 40,000 more whose employers have signed new UMW contracts and several thousand unorganized diggers are the only ones producing coal.

More Theaters Put Ban On Film By Ingrid Bergman

Hollywood, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Public opinion on the love affair of Ingrid Bergman and Robert Rossellini expressed itself today in requests to ban the film, "Stromboli," which touched off their international romance.

The film, starring Miss Bergman and directed by Rossellini, will not be shown in 175 Interstate Theatres, President Karl Hoblitzelle announced today at Dallas. The chain operates theaters throughout Texas and in Albuquerque, N.M.

Alex Blue, manager of five theaters in McAlester, Okla., said not only "Stromboli" but all other Bergman pictures which had been scheduled there had been cancelled.

Meantime, spokesmen for the producers, RKO studio, declined comment. They noted out that only cash from the wrecked safe when a flood truck pulled up at a nearby terminal. Panicky, they fled on foot, biked five miles to Union, held up a motorist and escaped in his car.

But back at Marengo, they had left behind their black sedan containing $2,000 in bills in three bags, a bag containing an undetermined amount of silver coins, three pistols, an electric drill and a quantity of explosives.

Sheriff Fred C. Bau said the gang's abandoned loot apparently had been obtained in a recent series of school burglaries around the state.

Confer Informally In Capital

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—President Truman's fact finding board in the soft coal crisis conferred informally today with John L. Lewis and the mine operators with whom he is locked in a contract dispute.

Formal hearings will start tomorrow. The three-man board is racing to meet a Monday deadline fixed by Mr. Truman for a report. After it is made, he can seek a court order directing the striking miners to return to work.

It was learned on good authority that both sides agreed to cooperate with the three-man board. That meant that Lewis planned to appear without a court subpoena such as was needed to bring him before a similar board in the pension strike of March and April, 1948.

Coal Operators George H. Love of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., Joseph E. Moody of the Southern Coal Producers Association and Harry M. Moses of U. S. Steel Corporation's coal mining subsidiary, the H. C. Frick Coke Co., all were contacted by the board in preliminary sessions.

None of the parties would discuss what they told the board.

Lewis himself declined to say whether he would accept the board's invitation to explain his side of the situation.

Late today, accompanied by John Owens, secretary-treasurer of the union, Lewis spent some time in the hotel where two of the board members are making their headquarters. Disinclined to Comment

Emerging, Lewis told a reporter he was "disinclined" to comment on the situation.

When asked whether he would appear when the board starts its open hearing tomorrow, Lewis said:

"Not meaning to be disrespectful, I think I must refrain from commenting at this hour of the day."

With the nation's stockpiles of coal steadily dwindling, the fact finding board appointed yesterday by President Truman went to work in an air of urgency and secrecy.

It was known that the members talked with Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, and with Cyrus S. Ching, director of the U. S. Mediation Service.

Dr. James Boyd, director of the Federal Bureau of Mines, who keeps a check on the coal stockpiles, submitted a memorandum to the board rather than appearing personally.

U.S. And Britain Recognize French Rulers In Asia

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The United States and Britain acted today to meet the communist advance in southeast Asia by recognizing French-backed Vietnam and two other new states in Indo-China.

The United States granted unqualified recognition and hinted at American aid a few hours after London announced Britain's decision to accept the three governments as independent states within the French union.

The action set the stage for possible new cold war struggle in the Far East. Russia, communist China and several European Soviet bloc states only last week gave their formal support to the rebel regime headed by Ho Chi Minh, veteran Moscow revolutionary.

The state department announced that President Truman is ready to name a minister to Vietnam and the other two governments, the Kingdoms of Laos and Cambodia. A formal announcement said further that the U. S. is considering measures to "promote political stability and the growth of effective democratic institutions in Indo-China."

There was no direct indication what the steps might take, but Mr. Truman has command of a $75,000,000 fund voted by Congress to advance American interests in the general area of China.

Ship Of Toys Leaves U. S. For Toyless Children Abroad

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—(AP)—A "tide of toys" started across the Atlantic today—a gift of good-will and friendship from America's kids to Europe's toyless youngsters.

The 900,000 toys loaded aboard the American Defender are headed for Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

There the 152 tons of playthings will be turned over to CARE, over two football fields.

Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Greece, Norway, Poland, Yugoslavia, The Netherlands, Scotland, Denmark and Ireland.

The "Tide of Toys" campaign snowballed into reality after the American Legion latched on to an idea broached by news columnist Drew Pearson.

George N. Craig, national commander of the Legion, told 500 cheer-leading youngsters—including 100 of Europe's displaced children—that "we only hope that this is the beginning of the kind of giving that will bring peoples everywhere closer together and rid the world of prejudice causing war."

"The 'Tide of Toys' will help stem the tide of communism," Craig made it clear that "this is only the start," pointing out "the Legion will deliver more than 3,000,000 toys to Europe before this is over."

The "bon voyage" took place in huge Pier 38, large enough to house two football fields.

And it was here in the stillness of respect that 11-year-old Judith Ann Fay of Westmont, N. J.—representing the children of America—spoke the words that sped the toys on their way.

"If these toys live forever with

H-BOMB MUSTN'T END SEARCH FOR PEACE THROUGH DIPLOMACY

Having the hydrogen bomb may not keep us out of war, but we cannot risk not having it. So President Truman has made the fearful yet unavoidable choice. We are going to build a weapon of almost incredible destructive power.

The decision was inevitable because the basic information needed for the making of the H-bomb is well known to our great potential enemy, the Soviet Union. No moral considerations could overrule that fact.

We should understand what we are undertaking. There is no scientific ceiling on the ferocity of this bomb. It could be possibly 1000 times more powerful than the A-bomb. Harrison Brown, atomic scientist, says the weapon might destroy an area of 300 square miles. Dropped over New York or Chicago, it could kill 2,000,000 people.

By these measures, the A-bomb is now antiquated, though it is less than five years old.

Of course, most experts do not expect the H-bomb to be built to its maximum. They're talking of a weapon 10 to 100 times more powerful than the A-bomb. For certain practical limits do exist.

One is the size of the planes that can be constructed to deliver the bomb over a target. It may not be feasible to enlarge bombers much more. Another question is whether plane crews could get safely away from the shock waves produced by a real super-bomb.

Furthermore, despite its name, the proposed new bomb is not actually a hydrogen explosive. Its chief ingredient would be a chemical called tritium, a sort of twin of hydrogen. Tritium is not plentiful. It is found in ordinary water in very minute amounts, and it has been produced synthetically in atomic energy laboratories. But getting enough of it is expected to be the costliest part of the H-bomb project.

Nevertheless our scientists confidently hope they can make an H-bomb within a year. And they doubt the ability of the Russians to match our pace.

It would be a grave mistake, however, for us to pin too much faith on this new device of destruction—frightening as it may be to the world.

A crucial issue, still undecided, is facing the nation's military experts: Is this the best way to spend our defense dollars?

The answer won't be known until the H-bomb project has proceeded far enough to give us an accurate idea how much money and manpower will be involved. Then we will have to measure the bomb's probable worth against other ways of using our resources.

For example, there's a question now whether lightning jet fighter planes may not have the upper hand over even the fastest bombers. If military men decided there was real doubt about our chances of delivering the H-bomb to enemy targets, they might think twice before committing too much money and effort to a highly expensive project.

Furthermore, we cannot rely on this bomb as a substitute for diplomacy. Having it will not justify avoiding the hard work of searching for enduring peace, for a plan to control this and all other destructive weapons.

On the contrary, if we successfully develop the H-bomb it will only increase our responsibility in the tireless quest that will make its use totally unnecessary.

Drug Treatments Help Victims Of Roundworm Attack

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

There are a great many parasites known as roundworms. Many of them live in water, mud or ordinary soil and do not attack human beings. Several, however, do invade the human body. One of these is responsible for the disease known as trichinosis. Another is the so-called hookworm which was formerly such a common cause of disease in the southern section of the United States. Still another is the whipworm which is more common in the warm moist regions of the world.

All of these roundworms belong to the same general class and most of those mentioned, with the exception of the hookworm, ordinarily enter the human body through the mouth. Once introduced into the body, they develop in the small intestines. The hatched eggs or larva then follow different courses depending on the kind of worm.

Some may grow directly into the adult worm in the bowel and others may migrate through the lungs. Hookworms and at least one other variety of roundworm enter the skin and travel through the lungs before reaching the intestines.

Some attacks by roundworms can be quite successfully treated but it is always better to prevent than treat. Those which enter the body through the mouth with food can be killed ahead of time by proper cooking of pork or other foods.

The conquest of hookworm which enters the body through the skin, however, has meant a different kind of attack. This parasite is often present on soil which is contaminated by human waste. Consequently it has been largely conquered by improving sanitary measures aimed at preventing human waste from lying on the soil. Also the wearing of shoes has meant a great deal in preventing the spread of hookworm.

Worms Are Poisoned
The kind of roundworms which lie principally in the human intestines must be identified before the right kind of treatment can be employed. When this is done certain drugs—most of them rather strong and dangerous in too large quantities—will poison the worms and cause them to be expelled, thus curing the condition.

The roundworms as a group still present a serious problem in the way of producing disease, especially in those parts of the world which have poor sanitation. However, more effective methods of treatment have also greatly reduced the number of people who are now attacked dangerously by these tiny animal parasites.

Roodhouse Women Hear House Clerk On "Legislation"

Roodhouse—Representative D. O. Shade introduced Charles Cervin, Springfield, clerk of the House, to the Roodhouse Women's club Thursday afternoon in a speech on "Legislation."

Also appearing on the program were Messrs. Hubert Cunningham and H. L. Janvyn, who sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. J. Lee Hopkins at the piano.

During the business session it was voted to donate $25 to the DeMolays and Rainbow Girls for their recreation room. $15 to the Trail Rangers and $5 toward the audiotape to be purchased by the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs.

It was also decided to send the club president, Mrs. Albert Powers, to the Illinois Women's club convention in Chicago in May.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. D. O. Shade and her committee.

Chapin Class Has Regular Meeting

The Poor Man's Philosopher On Collecting Faces

By HAL BOYLE

New York, Feb. 7.—(P)—Besides collecting years and nonsense, as we all must do, I collect another thing just for fun—and that is faces.

Probably everyone does unconsciously, but I do it deliberately. It is the cheapest hobby I know of, and differs from every other form of collecting in at least one respect: No one is going to corner the market in faces, then die and leave them to a museum.

The pleasant thing about collecting faces is you don't have to buy them. You just look at the faces as they go by—and let them clutter up whomever they belong to.

Run in Patterns

I am the last man in the world to put people in pigeonholes, or pigeon in people's coops, but faces do tend to run in patterns.

And when you collect them, you look for different patterns just as you follow a thread of theme in symphonic music.

The faces I like best are those of very young people. A child's face is like the Bay of Naples—the light across it shifts and changes, and from moment to moment it is never quite the same. You can never tire of it, and if I didn't have to work for a living I couldn't think of a more wonderful way to pass the rest of my life than looking at children.

The next best faces to me—are those of older people. I have read in books that old people generally are selfish and querulous. If that is so, I have been lucky, because most of the old people I know have been just the opposite. They do have a habit of saving string, but that is just because, knowing their days are rationed, they have come to hate waste of any kind.

The Sunset Face

The sunset face has a memory for every wrinkle, and I like to look at the wrinkles as the face opens and unfolds its memories. You never can weary of looking at an old face—it you like faces or like people.

The dullest faces are those between childhood and old age—the made-up, curly-combed, on-guard faces of people wary of themselves and everybody else. In this period people are more interested in saving face than showing face.

In my collection are a treasure store of splendid faces I have seen around the world, in war and peace. If I had to lose them all—excepting those of friends and family—what face would I keep in mind's eye? I think it would be a Chinese face. Any Chinese face.

It is like trying to read an old and wonderful story through a veil.

There are an estimated 435,000 of wells in the United States.

INCHES OF GAS Cause Pressure on Heart

Slow digestion causes food to ferment in your stomach. Pockets of gas form (inches of it!) and this gas presses upward, crowds against your heart. Then you are in misery. Hundreds here in Jacksonville suffered that way until they got the CERTA-VIN. This new medicine is taken before meals; thus it works with your food and your food digests FASTER and better, with less gas and bloating, and you get the fullest good out of your meals.

CERTA-VIN contains Ten Great Herbs plus vitamin B and iron. Therefore it not only relieves gas, it also enriches the blood with iron, and strengthens the nerves with vitamin B. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN—MACE'S Drug Store.

The event was a dessert bridge. One guest, Margaret Leaverton, presented. Miss Bess Maxwell returned to her home here after being at a convalescent home in Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tamblin moved into the home which they recently purchased, the William Fromme house. Mr. and Mrs. James Breeding moved their household belongings into the house vacated by the Tamblins. Miss Frances Keller returned to her home here after being a patient at St. John's hospital. The B.Y.F. of the Baptist church held its first meeting last Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes are counselors.

Japan Seeks Russian Gold

Tokyo—(P)—A salvage company is undertaking to find the huge hoard of gold that an old fisherman insists he saw the Russians dump into the sea back in 1905. The story of the fisherman, Katsujiro Matsuo, is that one day off Sasebo, southern Japan, he saw a Russian ship which had been surrendered in the final days of the Russo-Japanese war. As it was preparing to enter Sasebo harbor, he says, he saw sailors throw over the side 16 cases of gold ingots. As a round guess, Japanese say such a quantity should be worth $140,000,000. Matsuo fished vainly for the wealth for many years. In 1932, prompted by his insistence, the Japanese navy made an unsuccessful try for it. Now the Nippon Shinkai industrial company, a salvage outfit, has taken up the hunt.

"BAMBOO HONEY" The first reference to sugar obtained from cane was made by Theophrastus, in the third century B.C. He mentioned it as "honey which came from bamboo."

ROAD to BEAUTY

IN ABOUT five years Blue Ridge Parkway linking Shenandoah and Great Smoky Mountain National parks may be completed. Two-thirds of this mountain crest route, which will be nearly 500 miles long, is under construction, and more than half of it already is paved. Some parts are more than a mile high. First of its kind in America, the scenic parkway in Virginia and North Carolina runs through three national forests, George Washington, Jefferson and Pisgah.

Blue Ridge highway when completed will facilitate transport of modern equipment to such out-of-the-way farms as this.

New road will run close to such quaint structures as Mabry Mill, Virginia—grist-saw mill, wheelwright, blacksmith shop.

Colorful mountains will change with coming of scenic highway. Here, oxcart travels a now-paved section of Parkway.

Here's where Thrift and Glamor meet

Recognize this sprightly traveler?

Yes, it's the Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedanet that has caught the public fancy not only on its sleek lines, but on its easily-reachable price.

But notice anything new on it?

That's right — gleaming trim and the name plate "SPECIAL" brightening up the fenders. Brightwork around the windshield and windows, too. And when you swing the door open you'll see still other touches of added luxury — side armrests, front and rear, a robe rail, an extra ash tray.

It's all still mighty thrifty, because this strapping straight-eight sells for less than many sixes.

Frugal in other ways too — gas mileage, for instance, is surprising so many people they are writing us in delight about it.

But here we've added extra glamor. Stepped up, at small step-up in price, the luxury look and surroundings of cars that would normally be much higher.

Why not drop in and see for yourself, both how these added touches dress up this SPECIAL and how close it is in price to cars of much less room, riding comfort, standing and performance.

Your dealer will be glad to see you — glad to show you how this traveler handles — glad to sign you up for prompt delivery.

DYNAFLOW DRIVE? SURE, AT $40 LESS THAN BEFORE!

LITTLE SUPPORT IN CHICAGO GRAINS

Chicago, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Grains found little support at today's Board of Trade session, following yesterday's sharp closing advance.

Although there were indications of New export business wheat failed to hold its gains, and corn was easy throughout the session.

Oats was the only grain to show some strength. It advanced on reports that the army is in the market for around 800,000 bushels of the feed grains, but much of the early mark-up was lost toward the close.

The cash basis for corn was termed unchanged to 1 cent lower and oats were called steady to easier.

Receipts were: Wheat 7 cars, corn 38, oats 18, rye none, barley 14, soybeans 5.

At the finish wheat was 1 cent higher to 1 cent lower than yesterday's close, March $2.16-17. Corn was 1 to 1 cent lower, March $1.26.

Oats were 1/2 lower to 1 higher, March $1.27-27 1/2. Soybeans were 1/2 higher to 1 1/2 lower, March $2.28-29 and lard was unchanged to 3 cents a hundred, weight lower, March $10.30.

FOR ASCENT WITHOUT A SCENT—Two air freight agents spray a deodorizing chemical on one of 20 Angora goats before their flight from New York to Poona, India. The goats, from a Sonora, Tex., farm, needed the deodorizing to insure their social position with the cargo plane's crew. The agents are Vera Mammarella of Flushing, holding a tight grip on the Angora, and Mary Glynn of Bayside, operating the sprayer.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

JOINT CHIEFS INSPECT GUAM

Guam, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The U. S. joint chiefs of staff inspected Guam today on their tour of the western and central Pacific.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the group, said the chief concern is for welfare and housing of personnel on this typhoon-lashed island which he described as an important U. S. base. Accompanying Gen. Bradley are Army Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Air Force Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations.

Humming birds almost invariably lay two eggs in one nest.

Winchester, Chapin Teams Win In Y Tournament

The first round of play in the YMCA double elimination tournament was held last night at the David Prince gymnasium. In the first round, Winchester and Chapin Hotshots lived up to their name in tamping the Sunbeam Bread quintet 47-28.

The second round was easily won by the Chapin Blackhaws, lead by the consistent scoring of Beauchamp, and Dawson.

A relatively unknown in the scoring column, Blair, did more than his share toward victory for the "Hawks," leading the scoring with 24 points.

The final game of the night proved to be the best game of the tournament, thus far, pitting the Winchester V.F.W. crew against the White Hall club.

White Hall, hitting with equal regularity it was up to the other boys to decide the margin of victory.

White Hall was somewhat baffled by the stalling tactics of Winchester in closing minutes of play enabling the "Vets" to protect their lead.

Games tonight will bring together Farmer's Auto Sales and the Jacksonville Amvets in the first game of the evening at 8:30 p.m.

The final game finds the Winchester Hotshots and the Chapin Blackhaws meeting at 9:45 p.m.

Mt. Sterling Bumps Wilsonmen 64-47

A strong second-half helped the invading Mt. Sterling Green Hornets bump Spike Wilson's ISD quintet 64-47 on the westend boards last night.

The smaller Tigers fought the fast Mt. Sterling PMBC championship outfit almost to a draw in the first quarter. The visitors lead 19-14 at this juncture.

Lewis, Steinbeck and McClelland were successful with long shots for Mt. Sterling in the second period and the invaders held a commanding 36-21 halftime advantage.

Alta Hood and Eddy Raffel, ISD regulars, were injured early in the second half and had to leave the game. Consequently, ISD scored only five points in the third chapter and trailed the hot-shooting Mt. Sterling athletes 48-26 going into the final quarter.

Cecil, Paul and Carlstedt helped the Jacksonville aggregation make a comeback in the final lap but still the locals' efforts fell short and they failed to stop Coach Root's Hornets.

Cecil scored 12 points for ISD and Carlstedt and Paul trailed with ten apiece. McClelland racked up 16 counters for the visitors.

The Mt. Sterling reserves whipped Art Yates' ISD seconds 44-30. Spike Wilson disclosed last night that the ISD basketball game scheduled here with Missouri Deaf has been cancelled.

End of a Chapter

By Edwin Rutt

Copyright 1950 by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Alice Pine, literary secretary to Muriel Halleck, a writer, is mystified at first by Muriel's husband, Brent, who is a painter. One night she hears Rick, the Hallecks' small, adopted son, screaming and finds Brent dragging over the child and trying to kick a whip under a rug. Alice hears Brent described as going down-grade by Molly Tremayne who has known him since childhood. And the night after the episode in the hallway, Alice sees bruises on Muriel's arm—bruises left by Brent. One evening Alice is left alone and she decides on a night swim. As she is in the water Brent appears on the beach. Brent sees her and there is nothing for Alice to do but wade onto the beach.

BRENT HALLECK waited quietly on the beach as Alice Pine shook out her hair. For once his eyes, gleaming in the half-light, did not appear sardonic. Instead, they seemed troubled.

"Sensible place to be tonight," he indicated the water.

She picked up her towel. "I thought you were out somewhere."

He shrugged. "I did take a drive. But I hadn't any place to go. So I parked down at the end of the road and then—she peered at her suddenly—"was that you singing?"

"Afraid so." She gave an embarrassed laugh. "If you call it singing when I can't carry a note."

"I liked it," Brent said.

She glanced at him quickly. But, behind his pipe, his face was serious.

A moment passed, with Brent puffing silently. Alice reached for her robe. "Well, I think I can sleep now."

He took the pipe from his mouth. "Don't go just yet, Alice."

"Why?" She was a little puzzled. His voice had been unusual. Almost—well, timid.

"Because I'd like to talk to you."

She hesitated, without understanding the hesitation. For days she had studiously avoided Brent.

"I don't know if I should stay," she said doubtfully. "Muriel may be back. She may want me for something."

He laughed. "You don't know the Garden Club. When those females get together, they're good for half the night. Besides, what if Muriel is back? We could still talk, I suppose."

"All right." She sat down, pulled on her sandals. "But not for long. What did you want to say to me?"

BRENT dropped down by her. "I want to tell you something," he said slowly. "Then I'm going to ask a favor. But I don't know just how to do either. I'm afraid it'll sound like doubletalk to you."

"Naturally, I don't understand. Why can't you just speak out?"

"This is one time when that's difficult. So I'll merely tell you, even if it sounds trite, that the way a thing looks isn't necessarily the way it is."

"That is doubletalk," Alice said. "Well, I warned you. And that's about as clear as I can be."

"What's worrying you, Brent?" she asked, pointblank.

"You, in a way," he said surprisingly. "But if you're not worrying about anything, I'll skip it too."

She thought she understood. Brent was uncertain whether she knew the truth about what had happened in the hallway. And he was probing to find out.

Remembering, Alice felt a resurgence of her anger and disgust. For a moment she was on the point of accusing him; of pouring forth a torrent of blistering condemnatory words.

Unwittingly Brent forestalled a possible outburst by adding: "You won't understand this either. But I could use a little help about now, Alice."

His eyes flashed to his. She was suspicious of Brent Halleck. But, tonight, he seemed different. She had never known him in this subdued mood. Unconsciously, she leaned closer to him.

"I'll be very glad to help you, Brent. Any way I can."

His fingers touched hers in the sand, but went away immediately. "Thanks. You can, maybe, for the rest of the time you're with Muriel."

"There's something you want me to do?"

"Yes." He sat up, hugging his knees. "You've been wonderful to young Rick. Alice. I can't tell you how much I appreciate it."

COMING from Brent, this should have sounded insincere. Somehow it didn't.

"But that's been a pleasure," Alice said. "I'm crazy about the child."

"Well, please go on being that way. I'm sorry I can't be more explicit. But sort of see to him, will you?"

"Certainly. But we all will, won't we?"

"No," said Brent. "I won't, most of the time. I've been dicker for a job, Alice, for some time. Now it's come through. In Providence. That means I'll only be here week-ends from now on."

"But why a job?" she asked, in surprise. "Isn't your painting a full-time job?"

"Full-time, yes. But not fully compensated. Frankly, I haven't done so well since the war. And now—a determined note came into his voice—"I've got to make money."

"But what kind of a job, Brent?"

"In Perkins and Grant, an advertising agency up there," he told her. "I'm to be an art director. Never did that before, but I'm hoping to get away with it."

Our Saviour's Begins Recruitment Of Nurses

The first in a series of nurse recruitment programs to be given by Our Saviour's School of Nursing will occur at 2:30 p.m. Thursday for the senior girls of Routh high school, according to an announcement made yesterday by Sister Clare Anne, director of the nursing school. The affair will take place at Our Saviour's nurses home and hospital.

Economist Opens Farm, Home Week At Illinois U.

The largest potential customer for our farm products is western Germany. But when ECA funds stop in 1952, it will be much harder for her to pay for any imports.

To hold our foreign markets for farm products at that time, some of our agricultural exports will have to be reduced. And we must accept foreign goods that are useful and attractive to our people without imposing undue burdens and restrictions.

This briefly was the "Outlook for Foreign Markets for U.S. Farm Products" given Monday morning at an opening session of Farm and Home Week at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. L. J. Norton, agricultural economist, gave the report. He has just returned from a 6-month tour of eight European countries, where he looked into export possibilities for American farm products.

ECA funds end in 1952. During 1949-50, western Europe spent about $1,600,000,000 in ECA funds for agricultural goods. Norton says it's difficult to see how western Europe can replace ECA funds with its own earnings within the next two and one-half years.

The economists said that the only way we can pay for our farm exports after ECA funds stop is to receive needed foreign goods without undue trade barriers. Then other countries can use these earnings to pay for goods they buy from us.

Government Begins Probe Into 'Dark' Deals In PO Dept.

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—A high postal official has resigned and the government has launched an investigation into reports that "rare stamp investment" deals he engineered have cost "investors" hundreds of thousands of dollars, it was disclosed tonight.

The official was identified as Harold F. Ambrose, special assistant to Postmaster General Donaldson. Ambrose, long prominent in the Post Office department, is the husband of a niece of Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.). The senator's wife confirmed to newsmen tonight that Ambrose resigned.

She said that Ambrose had come to the senator and told him he was "in a jam," and that the senator advised him to go to the postmaster general, tell the whole story and resign.

Ambrose's resignation followed reports that a postal official had been promising investors a 50 per cent profit on their money in 90 days if they would invest in a scheme to buy and sell special issues of postage stamps.

ICC WAIL CURTAIL ELECTRICITY IF COAL STRIKE CONTINUES

Chicago, Feb. 7.—(AP)—If coal production is cut off for any "considerable period of time" the Illinois Commerce Commission plans to curtail the use of electricity in the state.

The ICC made the announcement yesterday after the commissioners met to consider the effect of the coal strike on the state.

Present coal stocks are adequate for full service, Walter T. Fisher, the commission's chairman, said. "If, however, he added, production is cut off for any considerable length of time, it will be necessary to curtail use of electricity in order to assure that vital services will be continued." Most Illinois power is produced through the use of coal.

Governor To Close 4 State Teachers' Colleges; No Coal

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Governor Stevenson announced today that the four state teachers' colleges will be closed because of dwindling coal supplies.

The schools will remain closed until Feb. 27 "or until such time as coal supplies are made available." Northern Illinois State Teachers' college at DeKalb will close Wednesday night.

Classes will be halted after Friday at Illinois State Normal university, Normal; Eastern Illinois State college, Charleston, and Western Illinois State college, Macomb.

The shutdown order will suspend studies of more than 7,200 students. Where possible, classes now on hand at the four institutions will be diverted for use at state mental hospitals and prisons, some of which have only a few days supply of coal on hand, Stevenson said.

The colleges will be allowed to continue their basketball schedules but officials said home games will be played in unheated gymnasiums during the emergency.

The shutdown raised the possibility that the school term ending in June may have to be extended to make up for work lost.

BERLIN BUFFER—Russian-controlled German police on the left and West Berlin police on the right form a double line at a Berlin zonal boundary to protect Gerhard Eisler, East German propaganda chief, from a group of hostile anti-Reds as he spoke at a Communist rally. After Eisler's speech, some excited Communists attempted to break through the police buffer, but dispersed after a 30-minute scuffle.

Charles Sorrells And Wife Are Robbed Of $1,500 In California

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sorrells, one of the owners of the Elm City Produce company in this city were robbed of at least $1,500 in California this past week, according to a newspaper clipping received by the Journal Courier Tuesday night.

The following news item was carried in the Ventura, California, Press:

A burglar, apparently equipped with ice-cold nerves and a meticulous respect for burglarizing craftsmanship, today was reported to have made one of the biggest cash hauls in Ventura in recent months.

Entering a room in the Mission Bell motel, on Highway 101 south of Five Points, the prowler artist made off with at least $1,500 in cash from the wallets of an Illinois husband and wife sleeping not six feet away from their wallets, it was reported to Ventura city police this morning.

The victims, Charles Sorrells, a Jacksonville, Ill., fruit and produce man, and his wife, told local authorities that the burglar apparently had to walk around their bed to reach one wallet, which was buttoned into Sorrells' trouser pocket. The intruder, after removing about $1,000 from the wallet, closed the wallet zipper, put the empty billfold back in the pocket and refastened the button, Sorrells said.

Ignored Ring
The prowler also removed cash, estimated at $500, from another wallet but ignored a diamond ring, valued at $1,000, and a wristwatch, which were in plain view on a dressing table, according to police reports.

Mrs. Sorrells this morning offered a reward of $200 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who took the money.

The burglar entered the room and departed via the route of a side window, the Sorrells couple told police.

Sorrells told police that there were eight $100 bills in his wallet and that he could positively identify two of them. He stated that one of the bills was covered with ugly red stains, looking somewhat like blood stains, and the other was smeared with ink.

Mrs. Sorrells reportedly discovered the theft this morning at 8:10 when she noticed her wallet lying open on the dressing table. Close examination revealed the theft of an undetermined amount from the bill compartment together with eight dollars which had been folded and tucked deep in a plastic card holder, records show.

Light Burning
Sorrells stated that he suffers from an asthmatic condition and leaves a light burning while he sleeps at night. He said he is a light sleeper and said that he awakened "four or five" times during the night but noticed nothing suspicious. He said he and his wife entered their room at 11:30 last night.

Sorrells and his wife arrived in Ventura on Monday, they told police officers. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sorrells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clatt, of Roodhouse, Ill., who were staying with Ventura friends last night. They plan to spend a week here, they said.

They told officers that the door was locked when the theft was discovered this morning. Sgt. Bob King and Officer Sheridan Odis of the Ventura department are investigating the theft.

Interest Lacking In Scouts Here: "Mayor" Kircher

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Scouts who voted for me to be their Scout 'mayor,'" is the statement of Byron Kircher, 15, of 817 S. Clay avenue. He adds, however, "It is my opinion that there is a decided lack of interest in scouting in Jacksonville."

"I base this on the fact that a very few scouts had enough interest in the election to public offices to even vote for their choice."

"Next year I hope that there will be more boys who take the opportunity to participate in the Scout elections."

"Also I would like to thank, in behalf of the other Scout officers, the public officials who will turn their offices and time over to the Scouts from 2 till 4 Wednesday, Feb. 8, in official recognition of Scout week."

200 Heart Banks Distributed For County Campaign

Two hundred plastic hearts have been distributed to places of business in Jacksonville and outlying towns as banks for donations to the first campaign of the Morgan County Heart Association. R. E. May, chairman, announced Tuesday night.

The American Legion is sponsoring the drive. In the towns contacted so far, the post numbers are Jacksonville, 279; Waverly, 266; Franklin, 1089; Virginia, 258; Murrayville, 311; Woodson, 249. Alexander, which has no post, has its headquarters in the store of legionnaire Earl Tilton.

Towns in this county which have not yet received their plastic hearts will get them sometime this week, May said. They are to be taken to Chapin and Concord today.

The chairman added that tickets are now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters for the benefit show at the high school, sponsored by the Jacksonville Legion.

The association is also mailing 3100 small red plastic heart banks, which may either be filled with contributions and returned, or kept for the children to play with, only the donation being sent for the heart drive.

Since ten out of 23 deaths are due to a disease of the heart and circulation, as Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, surgeon general of the federal public health service, recently stated, and since one in every 20 suffers from some form of cardiovascular illness, the association believes that people are so vitally concerned in this drive that their response will be a large one.

Nationalists Ask For U.S. To Watch For Soviet Action

Lake Success, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Nationalist China asked today for United Nations air and naval observers to watch for any direct Russian role in Red China's expected assault on Chiang Kai-Shek's Formosa island retreat.

The nationalists contended Russia should be kicked out of the U. N. for interfering in China, but said they realized a majority was not ready to go that far.

The Russians, meanwhile, carried on their walkout campaign to have the U. N. throw out the nationalist Chinese and seat communist Chinese in their places.

Besides calling for observers, nationalist delegate T. P. Tsiang urged the year-around Little Assembly to 1-Ban military and economic aid to Red China on charges she helped Mao Tse-Tung's Peiping Reds in their conquest of the China mainland.

The nationalists thus asked the United Nations to do what the United States has refused to do—send a mission to Formosa or intervene in any way there.

Legion Honors Firms For Hiring Veterans

Special recognition citations for three local companies were received from department headquarters because of their record in employment of veterans, Commander William Cochran reported at the meeting of American Legion Post No. 279 Tuesday evening. Sears Goldspot, Cornbelt Chevrolet company and Tom Cornish garage were the firms honored.

Keith Peabody acted as chairman of the committee on this activity. Cochran called the attention of the post to the annual Lincoln Day pilgrimage to be made Feb. 12 at Springfield, where National Commander George Craig of Brazil, Ind., will be the principal speaker.

To Sponsor Show
The post concurred in the recommendation of the board of directors to sponsor a show at the high school Monday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. for the benefit of the Heart Association campaign. The Legion has been one of the American Heart Association's greatest contributors since its first drive was begun two years ago.

Cochran announced that all the past commanders of the post, who are now residing in Jacksonville, took part in the funeral services of Past Commander Kenneth Woods recently.

Select Condolence Cards
Rev. Arthur Ewert, chaplain of the post, gave his report as head of a special committee to select a suitable type of condolence card to be used in illness or death. He asked for and was granted the authority to purchase a supply of the cards.

John E. Doyle reported on the group's finances for the month of January.

Clifford Gills was accepted as a new member, and Dr. K. R. Thaxton and James E. Waltz became members by transfer. Allen S. Combe was accepted by reinstatement.

It was reported that Harold McDougall had returned from Jefferson Barracks hospital to spend about 30 days at home. Lloyd Slagle was reported ill at his home.

Lower County Aid Budgets; Medical Program Unaltered

Notices of February grant decreases will soon be received by people who are being helped by old age pensions, aid to dependent children and blind assistance, announces Fred E. Deatherage, superintendent of the Morgan County Department of Welfare.

His information came from the Illinois Public Aid Commission. The notices state that any decrease in the amount is probably the result of adjustments to scale food and clothing allowances down to present price levels, plus the fact that money for personal care, recreation, education and medicine chest needs has been removed from all budgets.

The deletion of the medicine chest in on way affects the medical program for needy persons, which runs about $1,500,000 a month.

Adjustments to meet changes in the cost of living are required by law. A survey taken during December, 1949, in 16 stores of the county was the basis of lowering food and clothing allotments.

The commission reassured it contemplates no further cuts in the future, the only possible exception being another drop in prices.

Council Members, Board Of Health Discuss Milk Law

Paul Hanger, milk sanitation with the State Department of Public Health, led the discussion on the advisability of a grade A milk ordinance in the City Council Chambers at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, when the Morgan County Board of Health met with the members of the council.

The progress being made was brought up, and Mr. Hanger pointed out that a number of farmers had changed to producing only grade A, while more were planning to do so.

About 45 cities in Illinois have adopted the ordinance, which allows them to sell only top quality pasteurized milk, he told the group. The ordinance itself is uniform, not only here but in surrounding states, and according to the code set up by the United States Public Health Service.

Anyone interested was welcome to attend this meeting. Another discussion on the subject will be conducted Feb. 20 at the regular City Council meeting, held in the City Hall, to which the public is also invited.

Casey Forecasts Highway Decay; Asks Higher Tax

Chicago, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The state's chief road builder made a plea for a higher gasoline tax last night. He said that if taxes aren't lifted, seven out of 10 miles of Illinois highways will be worn out by 1960.

Charles P. Casey, director of Public Works and Building, forecast the highway decay in a television (WGNB) interview.

He described Illinois as having "one of the most critical highway situations in the country."

Under the present three cent a gallon tax, Casey said, $27,000,000 a year is available in state and federal funds for road construction.

Engineering experts, Casey said, believe Illinois should spend $211,000,000 each year for the next 10 years to meet highway needs.

A one cent a gallon boost in the tax would net the state about $75,000,000 more per biennium for road construction if all proceeds from the increase went to the state government, Casey said.

The increase would allow Illinois to get $40,000,000 more from federal sources, and would bring in an extra $35,000,000 to the state.

Casey added that 28 other states have boosted their gasoline taxes since the war—even though their roads are not as bad as Illinois'. The state has had the three cent levy for 20 years. Other state taxes range between four and nine cents, he said.
